The Latest on ...

Graeme's operation.

Great news! This delicate procedure was a complete success and Graeme has come through this ordeal, much to everyone's delight and the tremendous relief of Gail and the family. Graeme spoke to Lloyd this evening and hopes to be home this Tuesday. Another plus is that the doctors advised that Graeme should be playing golf again, albeit not for 2 or 3 months.

Tommy – Continues to improve and although we didn't see him on Tuesday we look forward to that pleasure in the very near future

Terry continues to battle on and the it is good to know that the stent is working as it should. Terry come and join us on Tuesdays when you can.

Bridget (Cahill) – Bridget continues her rehab at Attadale and we are thinking of her. Senior citizen bones take their time to heal but we await good news as to when Bridget will return home.

Meanwhile rumours that Patrick is starving are premature.

Away on Trips

Kevin & Heather Still awaiting their first news but judging by Kevin's itinerary, published before he left, he will be a busy boy.

Peter & Jill Tozer are on furlough.

Lou and Noelene will be off to Bali next week (Tuesday, 12 September to Monday, 18 September) so that gives us Thursday hackers a chance to cash in on the $2.

Apologies to Lou for not publishing his apologies last Tuesday

Chris & Linda are off again on 12 September

Roy & Robyn, along with Brian & Bev, are off for two weeks of golf in Hua Hin in Thailand.

Course Changes

Lloyd put a proposal to members on Tuesday that whilst the course updates are being carried out on the Back 9 holes we only play the front 9 until January when the works are scheduled to be completed. A member's decision on this proposal will be requested this coming Tuesday.

EB New Indexes

Following completion of the first 6 months of our golfing year the indexes for the Front & Back 9 holes are being re-evaluated and will be published shortly

Captain Friday's Tuesday Review

Lou and I (Ron) couldn't be there today because our wives' were either in hospital or having eye surgery. So the game got under way, on time as usual. I arrived at the club just in time to see Bob packing his uterus and heading home. "Where are you going Bob"? "I'm outta here"; "Why's that?" Well I had 24 points and I'm sure they won't be very happy with me, so I'm going home." Well I hope you feel a lot better today Bob. Poor old June will have to put up with you when you're crook. So.....Yep Bob was best of breed today with 24 pts and 15 putts. Chris was a long way away in second position with 21 pts. Of the 17 players that teed off, only 3 players didn't play to their Hcp!! Or better. I think that everybody was on medicinal drugs today.....I'm having trouble since my granddaughter moved all my computer info to my Ipad and mobile phone so I can't access appease .net . So that's it I'm outta here cheers Captain Friday.....

Captain Friday's Thursday Review

Thursday in Review.....We'll a lovely day to stay home and use liquid fertiliser on your garden. First up EB 9 holers. There were a couple of good showers during the morning but there were 4 reliable starters playing 4 ball match play. Trev and Alf Vs Lou and Kumarrrr. The card was a bit hard to under stand but in match play as long as the players agree to the result there is no problem. The match was all square !! PM 18 holers...There were 100 starters , coming 5th was Reg Kelly with another solid performance with 41 pts and coming in 24th was Ken Gray with 37 pts, coming into form ??..... (best score was 45pts)Now correct me if I'm wrong, the AM 18 holers scores are not up yet, so I can't give you any results, except Stuart Collier was having a beer at 10 o'clock at the bar. Something tells me that it rained a bit during the first nine.... That's it 0730 start in the morning. I will be there regardless. Drive careful with your lights on..... Cheers Captain Friday

Captain Friday's Friday Review (if you get what I mean!!)

Friday in Review.....It was a beautiful morning when 4players and 1 wounded warrior left the first tee. The comp was.....something different "Stableford count your putts" this morning the players were Kumarr, Geoff, Patrick and Lou. After the First hole I thought this 9 hole comp would last about 3 hours ! As the players warmed up the standard of golf improved (thankfully,)but then again clouds started to form and it got darker. By the 5th hole natural precipitation commenced and it lasted for about 2 holes. It didn't bother me. It was a bit different for the players, with rain drops dripping from their noses they didn't give up. At the completion of the game Lou with a score of 17 points was top of the wozza. He donated his winnings to "Friday Golf Comp" Geoff was r/up with 15 pts. The putting comp was quite remarkable, every player had 21 putts. There were no Ferrets, the jackpot is now $6. That's it from Shely Central, hopefully, Tuesday will bring in good weather cheersCaptain Friday.....take care driving

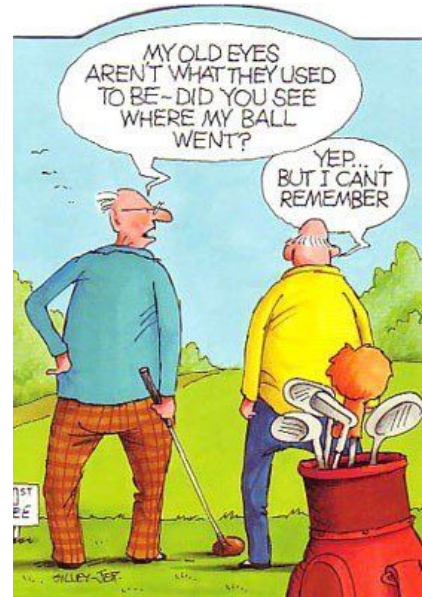

Some Golfing Anecdotes:

"Everyone has two swings – a beautiful practice swing and the choked-up one with which they hit the ball. So it wouldn't do either of us a damned bit of good to look at the practice Swing."
Ed Furgol – Golf Magazine

"At least he can't cheat on his score – because all you have to do is look back down the fairway and count the wounded."
Bob Hope (Comedian)

Advice for Duffers
